SUBMISSION GRAPPLING FIGHT CONTEST

SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

ABOUT GUNS 'N HOSES

The Guns-N-Hoses, Fire vs. Police Submission Grappling Fight Championship is a one-of-a-kind charity event developed to raise money for charities supporting the bereaved family members of fallen police and firefighters. Given an increasing dangerous first response landscape, as well as resiliently high mortality rates within these professions, short-term assistance to these families is expected to be in continued demand.

Guns-N-Hoses Submission Grappling Fight Championship will pit fireman and policeman submission grappling contestants against one another in a Battle of the Shields. The night's event has been choreographed for entertainment effect and will include: honor guard display, pipes and drum teams, beautiful rendition of national anthem, patriotic displays, DJ music, team entourages, ring girls, celebrity personalities, and event special effects.

The Guns-N-Hoses, Fire vs. Police Submission Grappling Fight Championship are held throughout California and beyond. Attendance to these dynamic events range from 1,000 to over 2,500 spectators.
